[ ]	(4)	Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.
		Alternative Findings (A)

		Alternative Findings (B)
[ ]	(1)	There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.

Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

The defendant was on bond from state court on a vehicular homicide charge when the present offense allegedly occurred. Defendant, therefore, has shown that he is not a good candidate to comply with this Court's terms of pretrial release. In addition, the government has proffered evidence of the defendant's involvement in violence and/or threats of violence to persons in the community as part of the alleged cocaine trafficking conspiracy, a crime which is inherently dangerous.

There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

The evidence and other information provided at the hearing established by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is a serious risk to not appear at trial, and by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant poses a serious risk of danger to another person or the community. Accordingly, no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the defendant's presence for future court appearances, or the safety of individuals or the community, if the defendant were to be released on bond. Therefore, the defendant shall be detained pending his trial.

Part III - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
